

GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
Office of the Governor
Agana, Guam

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 61-21

TEMPORARY REGULATION, RATES AND REGULATIONS,
COMMERCIAL PORT OF GUAM

WHEREAS, there is presently a strike against the Pacific Maritime Association by various maritime unions, which strike is presently enjoined, but which may be resumed on September 21, 1961; and

WHEREAS, the health and welfare of the people of Guam depend upon the continuous receipt of imported goods from the mainland of the United States; and

WHEREAS, it is accordingly vitally necessary that in particular necessary essential items continue to be brought to Guam; and

WHEREAS, in this interim period many importers have been cooperating to meet this impending emergency by greatly increasing their normal orders of imports; and

WHEREAS, the arrival of such imports in Guam will necessarily overburden the normal procedures for the pickup of cargo at the Commercial Port; and

WHEREAS, Section 7.1 of the Rates and Regulations of the Commercial Port of Guam presently authorizes seven (7) days of free storage after landing, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and nonworking weather days, which period is insufficient to move abnormal shipments of the size that have recently been received and will likely continue to be received in this emergency; and

WHEREAS, there is sufficient storage space to handle additional cargo at the Commercial Port in this emergency; and

WHEREAS, Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, authorizes the Director of Commerce to make, alter, amend and repeal rules, regulations, fees and rates as required in the operation of the Commercial Port of Guam; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, provides that such rules, regulations, fees and rates shall have the force and effect of law after approval and promulgation by the Governor by executive order;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the foregoing, the attached Temporary Regulation, as adopted by the Director of Commerce and as attached hereto, is hereby approved and promulgated, effective this date, and shall terminate and be of no further force or effect as of the 15th day following termination of the strike against the Pacific Maritime Association by various maritime unions or any extension thereof.

Dated at Agana, Guam, this 21st day of September, 1961.

Secretary of Guam
(in absence of Governor of Guam)

COUNTERSIGNED:

MANUEL F. L. GUERRERO
Secretary of Guam

GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
COMMERCIAL PORT OF GUAM
RATES AND REGULATIONS

TEMPORARY REGULATION

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Rates and Regulations of the Commercial Port of Guam, the Commercial Port Manager may in his discretion extend the free storage period of 7 days therein afforded import cargo for an additional period or periods, not to exceed a total of 21 days of free storage, to accommodate cargo which he determines to be specially imported to meet the present emergency situation arising out of the strike against the Pacific Maritime Association by various maritime unions or any extension thereof. This regulation is applicable to any such qualified cargo heretofore discharged, but not prior to September 1, 1961. The authority of the Commercial Port Manager under this regulation shall terminate as of the 15th day following termination of the strike.

ADOPTION

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of Commerce by Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, the foregoing Temporary Regulation is hereby adopted effective upon approval and promulgation by the Governor by Executive Order.

Dated this 21ST day of September, 1961.

J. D. LEON GUERRERO
Director of Commerce
