

GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AGANA, GUAM

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 78-15

SAGUA SIRENA

SIRENA'S COVE

WHEREAS, the recently approved Guam Constitution recognizes the need "to provide for the welfare of the People...protect our natural resources, and preserve the identity of Guam, I tano I Chamorro."; and

WHEREAS, this Agana Sewage Treatment Plant is a monument to the commitment of my administration to provide for the protection of our People's health; and

WHEREAS, situating this plant in the bay of our capital city is evidence of the priority placed on health by the people of Guam; and

WHEREAS, this reclaimed island and plant is a declaration of the people of Guam of their desire for:

- Freedom from the debilitating effects of diseases caused by improperly treated sewage.
- Freedom from a polluted ocean.
- Freedom from polluted lenses and other natural resources.
- Freedom to live a healthful life in a society where justice, domestic tranquility and liberty prevail.

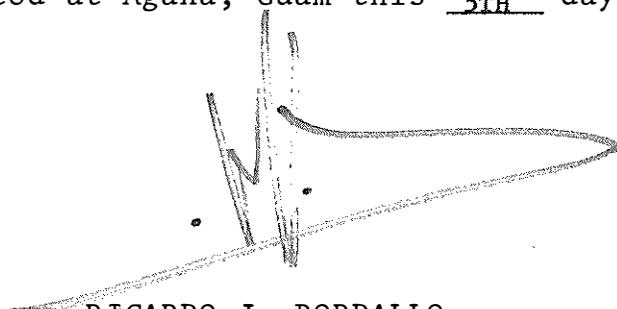

WHEREAS, this island is another project of the proposed Agana Bay Redevelopment Project; and

WHEREAS, the Agana Bay is reputed to be the swimming area of the legendary Sirena; and

WHEREAS, in fulfillment of the Guam Constitutions desire to preserve the identity of Guam, I tano I Chamorro;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICARDO J. BORDALLO, Governor of Guam, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Organic Act of Guam, as amended, do hereby order that this sewage treatment plant, the park and the entire reclaimed landfill, shall henceforth be known as Sagua Sirena.

Signed and promulgated at Agana, Guam this 5TH day of JULY, 1978.

RICARDO J. BORDALLO
Governor of Guam
