

TERRITORY OF GUAM
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AGAÑA, GUAM 96910
U. S. A.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 93-17

REGARDING THE PURCHASE OF FRESH AGRICULTURAL PRODUCE AND FISH BY THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

WHEREAS, Guam's farmers and the local fishing industry contribute significantly to the growth of our economic development; and

WHEREAS, the government supports the efforts of the farmers and fishermen to sell their items locally, and

WHEREAS, the Department of Education has a need for a constant supply of fresh fish and produce; and

WHEREAS, the purchase of local fish and produce by the Department of Education lessens our dependence on importing such items.

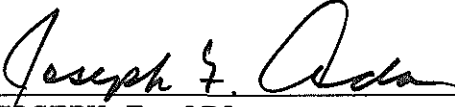

NOW THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH F. ADA, Governor of Guam, by the authority vested in me by the Organic Act and the laws of Guam, order that:

1. The General Services Agency review the Department of Education's transactions relating to the local purchase of fresh fish and produce;

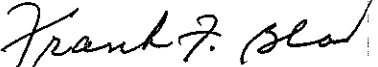

2. After review, the General Services Agency establish standard procedures under which the Department of Education may acquire fresh fish and produce from as many bonafide farmers and fishermen as necessary to meet the Department of Education's needs and objectives.

3. The General Services Agency periodically review the local agricultural purchases by the Department of Education to ensure that the proper procurement procedures are followed.

SIGNED AND PROMULGATED, at Agana, Guam this 23rd day of November, 1993.
