

TERRITORY OF GUAM
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AGAÑA, GUAM 96910
U. S. A.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 95-20

RELATIVE TO SUPERSEDING EXECUTIVE ORDER 95-18 TO ADD MEMBERS IN ESTABLISHING A CHAMORRO HERITAGE INSTITUTE PLANNING GROUP TO STUDY AND DEVELOP A PLAN AND PROPOSED LEGISLATION TO COORDINATE THE CURRENT AND FUTURE GOVERNMENT FUNCTIONS WHICH PRESERVE AND MAINTAIN ASPECTS OF THE CHAMORRO CULTURE AND LANGUAGE.

WHEREAS, Executive Order 95-18 inadvertently omitted some agencies and programs from participating in the "Chamorro Heritage Institute Planning Group"; and

WHEREAS, currently there are a number of departments and agencies of the government which are involved in activities directed towards preserving and maintaining aspects of the Chamorro culture and language; and

WHEREAS, these cultural aspects undertaken within the government are now executed in a piecemeal fashion, with one activity being undertaken by one agency and another activity being undertaken by another agency, without interaction and coordination; and

WHEREAS, some agencies now involved in such activities are the Chamorro Language Commission, the Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Guam Historic Preservation Review Commission and Trust, the Political Status Education Coordinating Commission, the Guam Visitors Bureau, the Guam Museum, the Guam Library, and Guam Economic Development Authority; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable to strengthen the Chamorro culture and language by practicing and maintaining cultural practices within the government which are already taking place, both for the cultural good of the people and their economic and political well-being; and

WHEREAS, it is desirable to coordinate these cultural and language activities by building an umbrella organization to bring disparate functions into a cohesive whole, so that Guam's identity may be stronger as a cultural, economic, and political entity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CARL T. C. GUTIERREZ, Governor of Guam, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Organic Act of Guam, as amended, and the laws of Guam, do hereby order:

1) Executive Order 95-18 is superseded by this Executive Order 95-20, in order to include additional members of the "Chamorro Heritage Institute Planning Group."

2) A planning group is established, to be known as the "Chamorro Heritage Institute Planning Group" to study the functions and activities within the government which are now and may be in the future involved in expressing the Chamorro culture and language, and to draft a plan for coordinating these functions and activities in the form of proposed legislation to implement an umbrella organization to be known as the "Chamorro Heritage Institute".

3) The Chamorro Heritage Institute Planning Group shall be composed of the following:

- a) Special Assistant to the Governor;
- b) Director, Department of Parks and Recreation;
- c) Director, Guam Council on the Arts and Humanities Agency;
- d) Chief Executive Officer, Guam Preservation Trust;
- e) Executive Director, Political Status Education Coordinating Commission;
- f) Representative of the Chamorro Heritage Foundation of the Guam Economic Development Agency;
- g) Director, Guam Public Library;
- h) Representative, Chamorro Heritage Committee, Guam Visitors Bureau;
- i) Director, Guam Museum;
- j) Director, Chamorro Language Commission; and
- k) Guam Historic Preservation Review Officer.

4) The Chamorro Heritage Institute Planning Group shall submit its plan in the form of draft legislation to the Governor and to the Legislature by June 30, 1996.

SIGNED AND PROMULGATED at Agana, Guam this 28th day of September, 1995.

CARL T. C. GUTIERREZ
Governor of Guam

COUNTERSIGNED:

MADELEINE Z. BORDALLO
Lieutenant Governor of Guam
